Liturgical Jottings

The Rite of Peace, by which the Church entreats peace and unity for herself and for the whole human family, and the faithful express to each other their ecclesial communion and mutual charity before communicating in the Sacrament. As for the actual sign of peace to be given, the manner is to be established by the Conferences of Bishops in accordance with the culture and customs of the peoples. However, it is appropriate that each person, in a sober manner, offer the sign of peace only to those who are nearest. GIRM 82

Quote of the Week

Authenticity is a collection of choices that we have to make every day. It's about the choice to show up and be real. The choice to be honest. The choice to let our true selves be seen. — Brené Brown.

Focus on the Gospel

In today's gospel we hear the impact of Jesus as a teacher amongst teachers. We hear that 'they were astounded at his teaching' and that this was due to the fact that 'he taught them as one having authority'. What does this actually mean – to teach with authority?

It was not simply an impressive depth of knowledge of the scriptures or that Jesus was not from an academic background but was a carpenter. These would have evoked admiration but not endowed him with authority. His young age for a teacher in the synagogue would have also been impressive but again not commanding authority. So what was it that came through his teaching that the listeners identified as 'speaking with authority'?

Certainly people would have identified Jesus' unequivocal belief in his message. He was just as certain of his Father and his relationship with the Father. The people in the synagogue could sense these invisible issues and assess that Jesus was indeed not only genuine but authentic in his teaching. He not only believed the things he taught about God but lived them out in his daily life.

As if on cue the powers of evil also recognise Jesus' authority and identity and acclaim him as 'the Holy One of God'. Jesus dismisses them and in doing so demonstrates that he is 'walking the talk' and confirming his authenticity. He does not seek their affirmation or a position of celebrity to tell people of God's kingdom. However, in today's jargon the events at the synagogue went 'viral' and his 'fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region'.

Our mission is to spread the news of the Kingdom. How do we go about this in our lives? Do we speak about our faith with conviction, knowledge and commitment? Do people see us as those listeners at the synagogue saw Jesus – as a person of authority and authenticity? We have a much better chance of achieving this if our lives and choices are founded in Jesus just as his was in the Father..

On the Lighter Side

An irate priest phoned his newsagent at midday, and demanded to know where his Sunday newspaper was. "Father," replied the newsagent, "today is Saturday. Your Sunday Times will be delivered tomorrow as usual." There was quite a long pause on the other end of the phone, followed by the sound of a penny dropping in Norman's brain. At last he said ... "Ah well, that explains why only two were at Mass this morning."

The housing project is progressing well for East Timor time. The project is designed to have the community help each other, materials supplied but labour and time given freely by the community. New projects take time and patience is needed in breaking down old habits, the house project might seem slow but the bigger picture is for people to learn to watch out and care for their neighbour.

St Brendan's raised approx. $1500 towards the cost of the project.

Prayer for the Year of Consecrated Life

O God, throughout the ages you have called women and men to pursue lives of perfect charity through the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity and obedience. During this Year of Consecrated Life, we give you thanks for these courageous witnesses of Faith and models of inspiration. Their pursuit of holy lives teaches us to make a more perfect offering of ourselves to you.

Continue to enrich your Church by calling forth sons and daughters who, having found the pearl of great price, treasure the Kingdom of Heaven above all things. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.
Amen.

Stewardship Reflection

"Brothers and sisters; I should like you to be free of anxieties" 1 Corinthians 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this—use the word "pray" instead of the word "worry" in the future.

REFLECTION

He comes to us One unknown, without a name, as of old,
by the lake side, He came to those who knew Him not.
He speaks to us the same word:
"Follow me!"
And sets us to the tasks which He has to fulfil for our time.
He commands.
And to those who obey Him, whether they be wise or simple,
He will reveal Himself in the toils, the conflicts, the sufferings which they pass through in His fellowship,
and, as an ineffable mystery,
they shall learn in their own experience Who He is.
