Liturgical Jottings

Among the faithful, the choir exercises its own liturgical function, ensuring that the parts proper to it, are carried out and fostering the active participation of the faithful through the singing. This applies in accordance to all musicians. General Instruction of the Roman Missal #103

Quotable Quote:

Beware of the person with only one book. Thomas Aquinas

From Today's Readings

I will hear what God proclaims; The Lord – for he proclaims peace. Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land. Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss.
Psalm 85:9-11

Focus on the Gospel

Whenever I travel away I am always worried about what to pack, and what to leave behind. If I took today's Gospel literally – then packing would be very easy, as I would be taking nothing. While this would make luggage collection obsolete, I sense the other people I visit or meet with would object to the side effects of taking no extra clothes or toiletries!

Trust in Jesus is a risky business, and the idea of going into the future without any support is well beyond me, as a materialistic 21st century person.

Jesus continually asks trust of his disciples throughout the Gospels. In today's Gospel Jesus asks his disciples to trust him, and also to trust themselves. These disciples were just ordinary people who, for the most part, had never preached or healed in their lives. And what is more, they were to take nothing with them.

The challenge of our Gospel, and in fact the challenge of being a disciple of Jesus is that Jesus requires us to take nothing with us when we speak about him. Take no baggage, and that is more than just the suitcase we carry. When we speak about Jesus he wants us to take the truth of our experience with him, and not the baggage that others give us.

Jesus calls us to travel lightly, not to drag the skeletons of the past, when we walk leave faint footprints, so others can follow, but not get tripped up by the imprint of our lives.

To follow Jesus, we need the trust to believe Jesus will provide us with all we need, and the desire to not bury Jesus in the things of other people's faith but embellish him with our own.

Year of Consecrated Life Congregation of St Brigid

The Brigidines were founded by Daniel Delany Bishop of Kildare in 1807, when he invited six women to form a religious community, named after the 5th Century Saint Brigid of Kildare. The congregation was founded to help with the spiritual and educational needs of the local community. They helped to ensure that education, Mass and daily prayer was available to all those living in the area. Still today the sister's commitment is to the needs, assistance and care of the communities in which they live for the benefit of all those in need.

The walk will be a great chance to enjoy the beautiful hills of Dookie while meeting and chatting with other parishioners so please give this day some thought and let the office know if you would like to join us.

COINCIDENCE
IS WHEN GOD CHOOSES
TO REMAIN
ANONYMOUS

Yet the experience of love shows us that a common vision is possible, for through love we learn how to see reality through the eyes of others, not as something which impoverishes but instead enriches our vision. Genuine love, after the fashion of God's love, ultimately requires truth, and the shared contemplation of the truth which is Jesus Christ enables love to become deep and enduring."

(Pope Francis, Lumen Fidei, paragraph 47)

Apostleship of the Sea - Stella Maris

To transport goods and products around the world, the global economy deeply rely on the maritime industry supported by a workforce of around 1.2 million seafarers, who at sea and in the oceans frequently face the strong and powerful forces of nature as well as pirates.

Many seafarers also have to handle a number of emergency situations such as the very difficult task of rescuing hundreds of men, women and children acting frantically while trying to escape war and oppression something that no maritime training course can prepare them for.

Seafarers are an important part of Australia competing in the global market and spend a considerable amount of time away from their families in their quest to bring goods to people.

Seafarers are also a part of our global parish.

The theme for Sea Sunday is "The Stella Maris Global Family"

Remember Seafarers who support Australia in this way especially this weekend and consider donating to the appeal to support seafarers in our global parish.

Envelopes are available at the parish office for donations. You can also donate by direct credit to BSB 064786 account number 5200 40100 account name 'Apostleship of the Sea' Reference 'Donation.'

Ps 85:12

Our earth shall yield
its fruit.

Stewardship Corner

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts." (Mark 6:8)

How different we are from the Apostles who took nothing when they ventured out to serve God. Today, we make our journey through life more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Yet, the more we can let go of, the freer we are to serve God with love and joy.

Not loud noise and cheap success.*

*Life must be lived without
