Liturgical Jottings

Next Tuesday is observed as the feast of the Nativity of Mary, the Mother of Jesus. This celebration was introduced into the liturgy of the church in Jerusalem in the sixth century and then in Rome in the seventh century. As a result Mary became with Jesus and John the Baptist one of the only three to have a feast day in honour of their birth. Mary's key role in the history of salvation was confirmed when the Angel Gabriel announced that she would have a child who would be the Saviour. We know little of her life before that so it is good to celebrate her birthday as a reminder that this child, like us in so many respects, was so special in the eyes of God that she was chosen to bear, love and care for his divine son.

Focus on the Gospel

Each time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist we expect that Jesus will touch our lives in some significant way. Today, Father's Day, we pray that Jesus will raise our awareness of the closeness of his Father to each and every one of us. After all, the mission of Jesus in becoming human was to reconcile us to God our Father.

For this reason we can be grateful that today's gospel reading is a narrative that has the potential to deepen our knowledge of Jesus and make him more real to us. This is highly significant for us because when Jesus taught us to pray he told us to speak to God as Our Father. By identifying more closely with the humanity of Jesus we grow closer to his Father and ours.

The first point about today's reading is that Jesus identified closely with the man who was brought to him in the hope of having his hearing and speech restored. Jesus took him aside and in one intimate moment restored his hearing and speech.

Perhaps the most interesting aspect of this event is that Jesus asked the man not to speak about the outcome of this moment of healing. Of course he could not refrain from telling everyone that he could now hear clearly and speak properly. The consequence is that people were swept up in admiration for Jesus. But that is not what Jesus wanted.

He wanted the people who were listening to him to focus on what he was teaching. His aim was to help them overcome their spiritual blindness by loving His Father and theirs whole heartedly and supporting each other as members of the one spiritual family.

The God who is Close to Us

We have known and put our faith in God's love for us. God is love, and whoever lives in love lives in God, and God lives in him.

(1 John 4:16)

A Father's Day Reflection

One determinant of the future of young people is unquestionably their family. Today we acknowledge the role of fathers in family life. We pray that fathers everywhere will give and receive the love that that binds husband, wife and children together as a family. Love of this kind is one of God's most precious gifts to us.

On the Lighter Side

Remember today of all days that a day is wasted if you have neither smiled nor laughed.

Fathers Day

Importance of Father's Day

Father's Day festival is considered extremely important as it help acknowledge the contribution of fathers to individual families and to societies as large. Besides observance of Father's Day provide children an opportunity to express love and respect for their fathers. The sentiment goes a long way in strengthening father-child relationship and consequently in the emotional development of a child.

Significance of Father in our Lives

The role of father is often relegated to a secondary status as compared to a mother. But all of us know that father is just as important for a child as the mother is. If mothers are the heroes of child rearing, significance of father in the development and emotional well being of a child is no less. Children depend on their father for their spiritual, emotional, physical, financial and social well being. For daughters, father is the ideal man in the world and also the first man they adore, while for sons, father is an idol and the strongest man they aspire to emulate.

Though traditionally father is seen more as a provider and guide for children, the scenario appears significantly changed in nuclear family culture of today. With most husband and wife working, fathers in present times are as involved in child rearing job as the mothers are. Today, most fathers do not shy away from changing nappy or taking the difficult task for putting the baby to sleep. This cultural change is helping in strengthening father-child relationship and consequently in emotional development of a child and building of stronger family bonds.

Significance of Father's Day Festival

Father's Day festival gives us the opportunity to express thanks to our Father for all their unconditional love and affection.

Observance of Father's Day makes fathers feel that their contributions are acknowledged in the society and also by their children. They feel proud of themselves! Besides by celebrating Father's Day, children come closer to their father. For most often children take love of their parents for granted. Celebration of Father's Day makes them ponder for a while on the important role their fathers play in their life. This helps them appreciate the selfless care and protection provided by their father and hence they come emotionally closer to their dad.

Children must therefore take full opportunity of the day and express their gratitude for fathers with all their heart. The best way to do so is to do small things that daddy appreciates and by saying "I love you, Dad".

Reflection

Father's Day Prayer of Remembering

"Fathers young, fathers old

Remembering good times are our gold.

Value earned through guidance given

Helping us go forth in livin'.

Each father adding to our trove

A treasure chest of love untold.

Remembering fathers in our lives

Taking time to realize.

Fatherly love brings wealth to living
Remembering this, we go forth in giving.

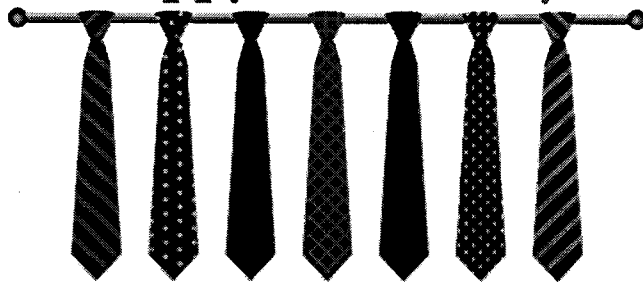

Fathers young, fathers old

We remember you all

As life unfolds."
