Mark 10:35-45

Liturgical Jottings

The Ambo (continued)

From the ambo only the readings, the Responsorial Psalm and the Easter Proclamation (Exultet) are to be proclaimed; likewise it may be used for giving the Homily and for announcing the intentions of the Universal Prayer. The dignity of the ambo requires that only a minister of the word should stand at it.

GIRM 309

Laudato Si'

St Francis shows us just how inseparable the bond is between concern for nature, justice for the poor, commitment to society, and interior peace. He helps us to see that an integral ecology calls for openness to categories which transcend the language of mathematics and biology, and take us to the heart of what it is to be human. Pope Francis nos 10&11.

Looking at the Readings

James & John, the Sons of Zebedee were nicknamed the Sons of Thunder. One wonders how they got that name. John, the beloved disciple, is often painted as a young lad on the quiet side. Obviously he was filled with zeal! This is the only gospel incident where they act on their own, Peter is absent.

Service is how Christians lead. They do not assume seats on the left and right hand sides of Jesus. They, like our current pope, Pope Francis, are called to serve the poor. The Christian call to looking after the poor and defenceless is our Gospel mission or to put it another way is Faith in Action!

The idea of leaders being servants seems foreign to us, even today. One of the Pope's titles is Servant of the Servants of God. Parents seems to exemplify this idea, think of how good parents constantly 'serve' their children.

Jesus asks the brothers James & John "What is it you want me to do for you?" Hear Jesus ask the same of you and then answer him from your heart.

Prayer from the Psalms for the week:

When I see the heavens, the work of your fingers,
The moon and the stars which you arranged,
What is man that you should keep him in mind,
The son of man that you care for him? (Ps 8)

Quote of the week

"Love God, serve God; everything is in that." - St. Clare of Assisi

On the Lighter Side

Jesus conferred the name "Boanerges" upon the sons of Zebedee, James and John. Mark translates the Aramaic name for the reader, "Sons of Thunder". The epithet's meaning is ambiguous. Traditionally it has been associated with their temperaments, excitable and impetuous, characteristics befitting former sailors. They do have fiery outbursts (Mark 9:38-41, 10:35-45), especially their offer to call down fire from heaven on a city of inhospitable Samaritans (Luke 9:52-54). It has been speculated that this vehemence translated into zeal and power in their preaching.

PARISH STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM 2015

Our Parish Stewardship Program commences in two weeks. Under the banner of Parishes – the Heartbeat of the Church, the Program will provide a wonderful opportunity to reflect on what it means to be a member of Our Parish Community here at St Brendan's Parish.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship recognizes that everything we are and everything we have is a gift from God. Genuine thanksgiving means using those gifts as God would want – developing them and sharing them with others. It is our responsibility as good stewards in St Brendan's Parish to respond to the words of Pope Francis
".....to set ourselves on the ideals of service that makes our talents fruitful."

World Mission Sunday 2015

'A passion for Jesus and his people'

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOUR AS YOURSELF

Matthew 22:39

Please reach out to your Australian brothers and sisters today.

Across outback Australia, priests, religious and lay workers have to drive several hours through unforgiving terrain to reach the many small Aboriginal communities. Sadly due to the large distances and the lack of priests and religious, their opportunity to nurture the Catholic faith of these communities is limited.

The theme of this year's Catholic Mission World Mission Appeal is inspired by the Gospel of Matthew, verse 22:39, 'Love your neighbour as yourself'. For 175 years, Catholic Mission has been reaching out through heroic missionaries to provide the spiritual and practical care our brothers and sisters in rural and remote Australia, and across the world, so desperately need.

This appeal invites parishioners to reach out through their financial gifts and prayers to support the work of the Catholic Church and selfless missionaries in our nation's most needy dioceses, supported through Catholic Mission's Home Mission Fund.

Sister Alma Cabassi from the Sisters of St Joseph, has been serving her neighbours right here in Australia for over 40 years. Today, she is based in the small remote town of Halls Creek in the Kimberley, in the Broome Diocese.

Using the vehicle provided by Catholic Mission, Sister Alma works at the grassroots level, assisting with adult formation classes, offering counselling services, managing the local op shop and facilitating retreats, all which are assisting communities in desperate need to achieve real, long, lasting change. As encouraged by Pope Francis in his message for this year's World Mission Sunday, Sister Alma reaches out in ways which reflect the local culture and language, thus empowering Aboriginal community members to minister to their own people—physically, emotionally and spiritually.

Bonnie Deegan, a renowned artist and Aboriginal elder in Halls Creek, relies heavily on Sister Alma to keep her family connected to the Catholic and wider community. She often has her grandchildren living with her, and is determined for them to grow up to know the Catholic faith, learn about God and have a positive lifestyle.

Sister Alma desperately needs our financial help and prayers, so that she can continue her vital work in serving the many remote communities. There is also a pressing need for more priests throughout outback Australia and vehicles for those priests.

Together, we can reach out and make a real difference to our neighbours—our Australian brothers and sisters.

St. Brendan's parish is offering a small group of them the opportunity to attend cooking sessions, preparing a meal together, then sharing it with any interested parishioners. We are inviting parishioners to come along and help with the planning or the cooking or to share in the meal.

Cooking will begin in the Monsignor Peter Jeffrey Centre behind the Church at 4pm and the meal will be ready to be shared after 6pm Mass on the following Saturday evenings: October 31, November 7 and November 15.

If you are interested in helping organize or cook please contact Bozena on 0426867647.
