Liturgical Jottings

The Rosary - Part 3

The Luminous Mysteries, are said on Thursdays, each meditates on the ministry of Christ. Read the Scripture passage and during the Hail Mary's meditate on the story listening to God speaking to you.

The Luminous Mysteries

- Baptism in the Jordan: The voice of the Father declares Jesus the beloved Son. Mt 3:11-17; Mk 1:9-11; Lk 3:15-22; Jn 1:26-34.
- Wedding Feast at Cana: Christ changes water into wine, his first public miracle. John 2:1-12.
- Proclamation of the Kingdom: Jesus calls us to conversion (Mk 1:15) and forgives the sins of all who draw near to him. Mt 5:1-16; 6:33; 7:21
- Transfiguration: God's glory shines forth from the face of Christ. Mt 17:1-8; Mk 9:2-10; Lk 9:28-36.
- Institution of the Eucharist: at the last supper Jesus with his apostles establishes the sacramental basis for all Christian living. Mt 26:26-28; Mk 22:25; Lk 22:14-20.

Looking at the Readings

As his journey to Jerusalem enters its final stages, Jesus continues to instruct his disciples. In today's Gospel passage Jesus tells his disciples a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart.

Jesus is addressing the Disciples about the need to pray constantly. Luke's audience are being persecuted and may have felt that God was not hearing their prayers. Jesus' conclusion is that if a helpless widow can get through to a shameless judge, all the more will a petitioner be heard by an honour-sensitive God.

Like other parables in Luke, the parable had symbolic overtones. The unjust judge represented the world that has no sense of place before God or sense of justice. In many respects, the widow represented Christianity.

The word for "widow" in Hebrew means "silent one" or "one unable to speak". In the patriarchal Mediterranean world only males play a public role. Women do not speak on their own behalf. Because the widow appears alone in this parable, we can assume that she has no male family member who can appear on her behalf. She is vulnerable and desperate. She has been deprived of everything of value in this society, what else does she have to lose?

The judge is not honourable, not one we would like to front up to in court. In the culture of "honour and shame" in his society the widow's only weapon is to shame the judge into acting honourably. She "keeps coming to the judge. It is a public audience, not a private meeting. Judges were appointed and they sat at the city gate making themselves available to all who needed a judgement. The entire community waits, watches and witnesses the event regularly. By publicly badgering the judge every day, the widow repeatedly shames the shameless person.

This week, reach out to someone who is marginalised in your community, one of the 'silent ones' and give voice their needs?...

Feast of the Week Saturday 22 October

St John Paul II (1950-2005), a pastor, academic, philosopher. As bishop he attended the Second Vatican Council and as pope travelled widely on pastoral visits focussing on families, youth, and the sick.

Quote of the Week

Before you speak, it is necessary for you to listen, for God speaks in the silence of the heart: St Teresa of Calcutta

On the Lighter Side

"Grant me, O Lord, a sense of good humour. Allow me the grace to be able to take a joke to discover in life a bit of joy, and to be able to share it with others." St. Thomas More

October the Month of the Holy Rosary

The month of October each year is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. This is due to the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary celebrated on October 7th. This feast was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful.

Want to say the Rosary on the go? Download one of the following rosary apps:

- iRosary featuring colorful images and prayers (iPhone, iPad; $2.99)
- Virtual Rosary vibrates after every 10 Hail Mary's (Android, free)
- Mobile Rosary allows you to share a cause and intention on Facebook or Twitter (iPhone, iPad, Android; free)

Reflection

October the Month of Prayer and Fasting for Marriage and Families

Scripture and the Church's history give us many examples of the great impact when a whole community undertakes prayer and fasting together.

Today and throughout this week we pray for all persons who experience same sex attraction or gender uncertainty and their families.

*Heavenly Father,
Grant true peace and joy
to our family members and friends who experience same sex attraction or gender uncertainty.
May we be sensitive and supportive especially in times of trial.
Lead us to deeper faith as we all strive for Christian perfection.*
