Liturgical Jottings

Praying the Creed

The Creed, from the Latin "Credo" means: "to put one's heart into it." In Mass it is both a confession of faith in what God has done and an acclamation of the glory of God. The Creed promotes Christian unity among Western Churches and now, since the filioque dispute has been somewhat resolved, a symbol of unity between East and West.

Pope Francis on Parables

Despite being the smallest of all the mustard seed is full of life and grows until it becomes the greatest of all shrubs. And so is the Kingdom of Heaven on earth: a humanly small and seemingly irrelevant reality. To become a part of it, one must be poor of heart; not trusting in their own abilities, but in the power of the love of God. ... The strength of Christ bursts through us and transforms what is small and modest into a reality that leavens the entire mass of the world and of history.

Looking at the Readings

The problem of evil has captivated the minds of believers and unbelievers alike over centuries. Related to this are questions of why crimes go unpunished, natural tragedies occur, or appeals for help are slowly answered. How is it that God does not intervene to put injustices right? The writer of Wisdom (first reading today) asked all these questions and we read a reflection of how God acts and how humanity might behave. Today's reading is the conclusion to this reflection.

First we cannot reproach God for his conduct (Wis 12:12). Secondly God is unlike the strong and powerful man. He does not wield his power, build fortresses to hide, act forcefully upon humanity or oppress the weak. God's power shows justice, patience, mercy, forgiveness and gives the believer a "Beautiful Hope".

The parables in today's Gospel passage also manifest patience (the wheat and the dandelion), begin small, grow strong (mustard seed) and God's word is at work in us (yeast in the dough).

Do not despise God's patience.
His kindness calls you to repentance.
When God's judgment is revealed,
he will render to all according to their works.

A Cistercian Prayer

Text for the Week

Behold, I stand at the door and knock, says the Lord. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door to me, I will enter the house and dine with them and them with me. (Psalm 110:44-5)

Feast of the Week: Sts Joachim & Anne, Wed 26 July

Joachim and Anne, named as the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mother of Jesus, and therefore, patron saints of grandparents, are venerated in Catholic, Orthodox, Anglican and Islamic traditions. They are not mentioned in the Bible. The story of Joachim and Anne first appears in the apocryphal Gospel of James. St John Damascene, Bishop and Doctor of the Church offered thanksgiving for them in a sermon in the 7th century.

On the Lighter Side

One cannot say, except as a joke, that 'I won the game; pity that my team lost!' Yes; an individual must be part of a team, just as a Christian must be part of the community. Parables of the Kingdom of Heaven: the wheat and dandelion, the mustard seed and leaven give us insights into patience and goodness and working together to achieve the "reign of God".

Proposed Euthanasia Bill

Next weekend 29th/30th July after each Mass there will be a letter writing opportunity together in the Mons Jeffrey Centre. We will have sample letters available to use to write to our local MP's if you wish to use them.

We can also organise visits to local MP's together. This has been identified as one of the most effective ways of letting politicians know how we want them to vote.

That every person's heart

Inner Peace in Divine Love

A 'retreat in daily life' - it is for busy committed people who cannot afford to take time off work and pay for increasingly expensive retreats in spirituality centres. The retreat is made over four weeks (31/7/2017 – 27/8/2017) and is based in the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola.

- This retreat brings one's desires to light and into the presence of a personal God.
- It brings one's own life experience into this relationship using various prayer methods such as imaginative contemplation.
- It takes one quickly and deeply into prayer.

What happens then is freely up to God.
Do you dare ?

The retreat will be directed by Sr. Margaret Claver FCJ, who brings a background of living Ignatian Spirituality as a member of the Society of Sisters, Faithful Companions of Jesus. Margaret has a Master of Arts in Spiritual Direction and enjoys and is vastly experienced in giving retreats in the parish setting.

(Dependent on numbers) the retreat will be offered with a choice of times:

Mondays: 31st July; 7th August; 14th August; 21st August

Times: 1:30pm – 3:00pm or 7:00pm – 8:30pm

Venue: St. Mel's Parish House, 18 Hamilton St., Shepparton South.

Cost: $30.00 (covers the cost of the retreat book.)

Registration is required by Sunday 23rd July at St. Mel's (58312 194) or St. Brendan's (58212 633)

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. (1 Cor 13:4-7)
