Liturgical Jottings Season of Creation

From 1 September to 4 October, Christians around the world are praying and caring for creation in this Season of Creation. September 1 is proclaimed as a day of prayer for creation. It ends on 4 October, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi (author of the Canticle of the Creatures).

Pope Francis on Creation

The day of prayer for the care of creation gives individuals and communities an opportunity to implore God's help in protecting creation and an opportunity to ask God's forgiveness "for sins committed against the world in which we live". Message 2015

Prayer for Father's Day

God our Heavenly Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless our dads, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Amen

Looking at the Readings

Last week's and this week's Gospel form a unity featuring a dialogue between Christ and St Peter. Matthew Chapter 16 is the first time Peter stands out from the gathering of disciples. First he acclaims of Jesus: 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God,' and now today: 'Heaven preserve you, Lord, this [suffering and death] must not happen to you. Jesus praised him for his faith, granted to him by God the Father and later rebuked him for following man's way not God's way.

Peter is emerging as a leader of the apostles and later as the leader of the Church keeping its unity and peace and encouraging the early Christians in their faith in the Risen Christ. Peter knows the difficulties of life and faith. He experienced Jesus saving him from drowning, and forgiving him his denials. Peter stands as a symbol of the church: both human and graced with the divine life of God.

Our church today continues with human failings, conflicts of faith and society, splitting communities and challenges in structures. At the same time we also have the same graced experiences of Peter: Jesus firm grasp to hold us in time of doubt, his mercy and his promise to be with when we pray and til the end of time.

Featured Feast of the Week

St Peter Claver (Saturday 9 September), Born in Spain, studied at University of Barcelona, entered the Jesuits, then left his homeland to go to the missions in Colombia, He became a servant to the African slaves who entered via the port at Cartagena to work in mines and plantations. After a long debilitating illness during a plague he died on 8 September 1654, canonised in 1888 and proclaimed patron saint of Colombia and the Mission to the slaves.

Quote of the week

"We must speak to them with our hands before we try to speak to them with our lips" St Peter Claver while giving out food, medicine, brandy and tobacco to the slaves in the holding yards at Cartagena.

On the Lighter Side

I once bought a pair of shoes. One day while wearing them, I fell and broke my wrist. Some time later while wearing them, I slipped, fell, and broke my knee. Those shoes cost me an arm and a leg! A Pun from Robyn Anon

Father's Day Leaving Collection this Sunday

The Retired Priests Foundation seeks your generosity in giving to this special collection. There will be a leaving collection or if you prefer a receipt, there are envelopes on the seats in the church you can use. Donations over $2 are tax deductible. Thank you for your contributions and prayers.

Strength of a Mountain

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad

We do not have many chances in our life to grow and nourish our understanding of who we are as men. We have many roles to live out as a father, husband, friend and son but how do we live these out fully both for ourselves and others.

During the weekend answers to these questions will be explored for each of us individually.

Flyers and registration forms are in the church, or if you have a question contact Paul White

Bless Our Fathers

Heavenly Father, Today we ask You to bless our earthly fathers for the many times they reflected the love, strength, generosity, wisdom and mercy that You exemplify in Your relationship with us, Your children.

We honour our fathers for putting our needs above their own convenience and comfort; for teaching us to show courage and determination in the face of adversity;
for challenging us to move beyond self-limiting boundaries;
for modelling the qualities that would turn us into responsible, principled, caring adults.

Not all our fathers lived up to these ideals.
Give them the grace to acknowledge and learn from their mistakes.
Give us the grace to extend to them the same forgiveness that you offer us all.

Help us to resist the urge to stay stuck in past bitterness, instead, moving forward with humility and peace of heart.

We ask your blessing on those men who served as father figures in our lives when our biological fathers weren't able to do so.
May the love and selflessness they showed us be returned to them in all their relationships, and help them to know that their influence has changed us for the better.

Give new and future fathers the guidance they need to raise happy and holy children, grounded in a love for God and other people - and remind these fathers that treating their wives with dignity, compassion and respect is one of the greatest gifts they can give their children.

We pray that our fathers who have passed into the next life have been welcomed into Your loving embrace, and that our family will one day be reunited in your heavenly kingdom.

In union with St. Joseph, whom you entrusted with Your Son, we ask Your generous blessings today and every day.

Amen.
